TRAINING OVERVIEW

TRAINING DESCRIPTION:

This innovative and exciting Motivating, Coaching, Counseling & Mentoring training has been specifically designed to meet the demands of the modern workplace. During the five days, participants will be given the opportunity to examine their existing knowledge and skills and be instructed in areas related to Motivating, Coaching, Counseling & Mentoring. This training is very practical, thought provoking, motivational and above all interesting. It will introduce participants to the core skills of Workplace Coaching, Counseling and Mentoring and will focus on practical skills development.

Workplace coaching is a skilled activity that should be delivered by appropriately trained people and is a proven method to train and develop others. A mentor is someone who can help (often a younger) another employee work out their priorities, make career decisions, and develop work skills. Workplace Counselling can involve practical skills to help others and also the provision of professional support through Employee Assistance Programs (EAPs).

TRAINING OBJECTIVE:

- Evaluate Techniques for Coaching, Counseling & Mentoring
- Utilize Motivational Coaching Techniques in the Workplace

DMCT/OL/9/18(Rev3Dt:23/9/18)

- Develop Practical Counseling Skills to Use with Staff
- Communicate More Effectively at All Levels
- Comprehend the Concepts and Appropriate Methodology of Mentoring

TRAINING METHODOLOGY

A highly interactive combination of lecture and discussion sessions will be managed to maximize the amount and quality of information, knowledge and experience transfer. The sessions will start by raising the most relevant questions and motivate everybody to find the right answers. The attendants will also be encouraged to raise more of their own questions and to share developing the right answers using their own analysis and experience.

All attendees receive a course manual as a reference.

This interactive training workshop includes the following training methodologies.
